Condonation of shortage of attendance shall be as per existing University rules. Candidates with shortage of attendance beyond condonable limit will not be eligible to register for the end semester University examination. In such cases the candidate has to repeat the course by taking re-admission from the University.

Registration for each Semester

All the courses carrying score should be compulsorily attended by all the candidates for the successful completion of the course. Only such candidates are permitted to register for the End Semester University examination. Every candidate should register for all subjects of the end-semester examinations of 1st, 2nd and 4th semester before its closure. But for the 3rd semester (Since having no End Semester Theory Examinations), registration is to be done after the closure of the semester. A candidate who does not register will not be permitted to attend the end-semester valuation at the specified center; Head of each institution should ensure this. Suspending classes for the conduct of valuation camp is not a feasible procedure; Home valuation may be implemented for examinations of 1st semester. Faculty members appointed for Centralized Valuation Camp/home valuation should necessarily have minimum three years teaching experience at B.Ed. degree level. Within a week after the commencement of classes of each semester, Head of each Institution should forward the list of faculty members working in the college along with their qualification and years of teaching experience, to the University. This is a mandatory requirement which should be strictly followed by Head of each Institution. Head of each Institution shall ensure the availability of sufficient number of regular faculty members having experience and qualifications (as per NCTE Regulations) in the institution.

Procedure for completing the course

A candidate shall be required to complete the B.Ed. programme after undergoing the prescribed courses of study in a college affiliated to the university for four semesters within a period of not less than two years; clear all the examinations prescribed and fulfill all such conditions as prescribed by the University from time to time. However the maximum duration permissible for taking the B.Ed. programme is fixed as 3 years after joining the course.

Eligibility for the Degree

No candidate shall be eligible for the B.Ed. degree unless he/she has undergone the prescribed course of study for a period of not less than two academic years in an institution affiliated to the University of Calicut and has passed all subjects as per the prescribed syllabus.

Revision of Regulation: Notwithstanding all that has been stated above, the university has the right to modify any of the regulations, scheme and syllabus of the programme from time to time as per University rules.

4. SCHEME OF EXAMINATION & INTERNAL ASSESSMENT.

Assessment of Students

Assessment of students for each subject will be done by internal continuous assessment and end semester examinations. Internal assessment shall be conducted throughout the semester. It shall be based on internal examinations, assignments (such as Tasks and assignments that run through all courses.) as specified in the syllabus. End-semester examinations of theory subjects will be conducted by the University and those of all practical subjects will be conducted at institutional level.

There shall be End Semester University Examinations in 1st, 2nd and 4th semesters. 3rd semester is an exclusive Practical semester and hence there will be no End Semester University Examinations for theory in the 3rd semester. However results of the Practical courses internally evaluated will be published by the university. End-semester examinations will be conducted only once in a year; failed candidates will have to appear for the end-semester examinations along with regular students of the next batch. To ensure transparency of the evaluation process, the student should be made aware of the criteria / indicators of assessment well in advance and the internal assessment marks awarded to the students in each course (theory and practical) shall be published on the notice board at least one week before the commencement of external examination so as to enable the students to report any corrections. There shall not be any chance for improvement for internal marks. There shall be no separate minimum for internal assessment of theory courses. Students may seek redress of grievances of internal evaluation at the teacher educator level or at the college evaluation committee level. The consolidated mark lists of all courses of a semester shall be submitted to the University immediately after the closure of each semester

Assessment in Theory Subjects

The ratio of internal to external examination for theory courses is 20:80.

The marks allotted for internal continuous assessment and end-semester university examinations shall be 20 marks and 80 marks respectively with a maximum of 100 marks for each theory subject with full weightage and shall be 10 marks and 40 marks respectively with a maximum of 50 marks for each theory subject with half weightage.

Internal evaluation: The internal evaluation of Theory courses shall be based on predetermined transparent system involving periodic written tests, practicum/tasks and assignments. The weightage to award internal continuous assessment marks should be as follows:
Test papers (minimum two for 100 marks courses and one for 50 marks courses) – 50%
Tasks and Assignments (two for 100 marks courses and one for 50 marks courses) -50%
