A SEPTEMBER TO REMEMBER

“All the months are made experiments ,out of which the perfect September is made.”

The English option students got a golden opportunity to utilize this perfect September and celebrate all its important days and play a leading role in all celebrated programmes . It was made a September to remember with full enthusiasm we basked in the warm September sun .There was an open doorway in front of us to show our best performance .Most of the events were conducted in an online mode virtually in the backdrop of terrible blocked up corona days.

TEACHER'S DAY

The celebration began with the Teacher's Day on September 5.

Remembering Dr. Sarvepathi Radhakrishnan ,the celebration began for the day of our inspiring soul and guiding lights. With full happiness and great enthusiasm this opportunity was grabbed by students to reveal their love ,regards and respect to their teachers .The chief guest of the day was D .Vijayakumar CG ,vice chancellor ,Maharshi Panini Sanskrit University and Prof .Dr. M.K. Jayaraj , University of Calicut .They gave their blessing messages on this auspicious day .The event became more charming and beautiful with their presence .There was a surprise for all the teachers ,created by all the students with their creative efforts .The video consisted of photographs and few entries about quality of the teachers .The purpose of the video was to applaud ,salute and touch the feet of our teachers for their kind blessings .The words given out by our teachers will always be etched in our heart .One of our students also gave a remarkable speech on this big day.

WORLD CHARITY DAY

World charity Day was another important day celebrated on the same day September 5. All students and teachers contributed in the form of money as much as they could do to help a woman to save her life .The woman was in urgent need of kidney transplantation .This small step of kindness ,we all came to know that a small step of charity gives highest contentment and happiness .This is a novelist feeling which rarely one gets.
