MEMORANDUM OF UNDERSTANDING

MEMORANDUM OF UNDERSTANDING (MOU) made and executed on this date: 11th
December 2020 _____

INSTAGANA, L.L.C, a USA-based NGO and INSTAGANA LIVE (IGL) Private Limited, Chennai have been offering hands-on courses and faculty development programs to college students and teachers in India. The projects are designed for introducing technology in educational institutions early on to align with National Educational Policy 2020 from the Indian Government.

The Faculty Development Program (FDP) offered by IGL includes high quality webinars on latest trends in Education, Technology and Research areas with speakers from USA and India. The purpose of the FDP is to enable teachers and students to acquire knowledge and come up with suitable projects and research topics that are aligned with the current R&D areas in Arts, Science and Technology. Our speakers include IT professionals from USA (especially in the Silicon Valley, California) as well as professors in academics. The FDP also includes organizing Live Webinars from college students and faculty to present their project or research work which can be watched by a large group of colleges and professionals across the globe. IGL works with College to schedule the FDP and Live Webinars according to their convenience.

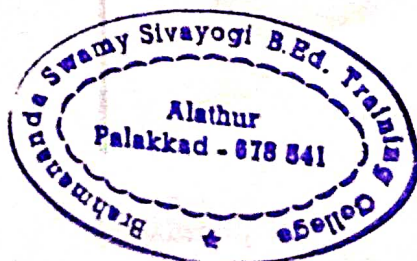

It is quite evident that COVID-19 has impacted the educational institutions and particularly the students. Many, if not all the in-person classrooms are replaced with online classrooms that are challenging for many students. While the educational institutions are modifying the learning environment including hardware and software tools needed to offer online classes, companies such as IGL need to step up and help them address the stress and anxiety that is caused due to the pandemic. IGL is pleased to offer a program that identifies students with skills in Music, Sketching and Media Communications and promotes them with Certificate courses in these areas. The courses are designed to enhance as well as assess their skills so qualified students will receive completion certificates. IGL charges a nominal fee to Students directly for taking these certificate courses. Please have interested students reach out to IGL representatives for more details on course details.

AND

OBJECTIVES:

The objective of this partnership is to facilitate a comprehensive program that helps students gain experience in latest technologies and prepare themselves for modern education system based on technology. Here are some specific services we provide to COLLEGE:

1. Orientation to students and teachers on technologies
2. Work with students in identifying the technology areas and projects that suit their interest and career goals
3. Provide training over online and/or in-person, if necessary
4. Support the students from start to finish of the courses
5. Help students improve on their communication skills related to projects such as project report, project presentation, demo video and live presentation
6. Share with college staff and students a quarterly technology digest covering latest trends in the industry using Webinars
7. Work with college management for scheduling Faculty Development Programs (FDP) such as Live Webinars from Industry Leaders in the fields of Arts, Science and Technology.
