Students Grievance Redressal Committee

Protection and assurance of human rights are necessary for the all-around development of students. Academic progress can only happen in an environment where a student is assured of righteousness and equality. To this end, our BSS B.Ed. Training College has constituted a Students Grievance Redressal Committee (BSS-SGRC). The BSS-SGRC aims to understand and rectify the grievances of students.

BSS-SGRC Policy

- Strong principles and ethics are inextricably intertwined with the vision and mission of the institution.
- Student grievances are addressed effectively through an active student grievance redressal committee.
- A three-mode student grievance mechanism is in place to solve any academic and administrative-related complaints.
- Ragging and sexual harassment are not tolerated by the institution.
- Strict adherence to norms stipulated by the Government regarding ragging and sexual harassment.
- All students are bound by the code of conduct of the institution.
- The institution recognizes the right of a student to dissent and to fight for the legitimate rights of students.
- Abuse on social networking sites will be strongly dealt with.
- Any student detected in any incriminating situation both inside and outside the campus shall be reprimanded and counseled.
- Students found violating the code of conduct shall be given a fair hearing at the institution level and shall be suspended/dismissed only if deemed necessary.

BSS-SGRC Objectives:

The main objective of the SGRC is to ensure an amicable and accountable attitude among the staff towards the students to uphold harmony in the institution. The objectives of the SGRC are:

- To uphold the dignity of the institution by ensuring a conflict-free atmosphere in the institution through promoting cordial Student-Student relationships and Student-Teacher relationships etc.
- To encourage the students to express their grievances/problems freely and frankly, without any fear of being victimized.
- To progress a step-by-step structure to resolve the grievances of students.
- To care for students discriminatorily underprivileged.
- To guarantee that the staff of the institution are reactive, responsible, and polite in dealing with the students.
- To provide quick and effective redressal of students' grievances in an unbiased and just manner.
- To create awareness of the availability of members for students to report grievances.
- To investigate the cause of grievances.
- To ensure an effectual solution depending upon the gravity of the grievance.

Functions of BSS-SGRC

- Accept written grievances from students.
- Create and implement a mechanism to handle the reported grievances.
- Forward the findings to the management if necessary for further action.
- To listen, record and scrutinize the grievances submitted to them by the students and take necessary steps immediately.
- Represent the grievances to the concerned section which may include maintenance, academic, amenities, administration, school internship, community, etc.
- Convene periodic meetings to discuss whether the grievances have been settled.
- Make a follow-up of these matters at regular intervals till their final disposal.
- Maintain strict confidentiality, if necessary.
- Look into the complaints lodged by any student, and judge their merit.
