Report on the AI Workshop for Teaching

A webinar on "AI Tools for Teaching" was conducted on 1st March 2025 for the students of BSS B.Ed Training College, Alathur from 7 PM to 8:30 PM in collaboration with ENTRI APP. The session was hosted by Ashref Hamza, a software engineer, project manager, and AI and robotics trainer. The workshop focused on introducing various AI tools that can enhance the teaching process and make it more efficient. The speaker provided insights into how AI can assist educators in simplifying lesson planning, content creation, and student engagement.

During the session, a range of AI tools was discussed, including text-based, audio-based, video-based, and presentation-based tools. These tools were demonstrated to show their practical applications in the classroom, making learning more interactive and engaging. The webinar was highly informative and effective, equipping future educators with innovative strategies to integrate AI into their teaching methods. The session concluded with a Q&A segment, where students clarified their doubts and explored further possibilities of AI in education. Overall, it was a valuable learning experience for all participants and very useful for the upcoming teachers.

WORLD WILDLIFE DAY

B.S.S B.Ed Training College, Alathur, Palakkad, organized a special program on World Wildlife Day, observed on March 3, 2025, to spread awareness about the significance of wildlife conservation. The event aimed to educate students about biodiversity, the role of wildlife in maintaining ecological balance, and the urgent need for conservation efforts.

The program commenced in the college auditorium with an invocation, Guruvandanam, setting a solemn and respectful tone for the event. Rohini K.P. delivered the welcome speech, followed by an insightful inaugural address by Dr. K.S. Balambika, Principal of BSS B.Ed Training College, Alathur. The principal emphasized the importance of preserving wildlife and the role of education in fostering environmental responsibility.

A speech by Anjana M. further enriched the audience's understanding of wildlife conservation, highlighting key challenges such as habitat destruction, poaching, and climate change. The event concluded with a vote of thanks by Amrutha P.V., expressing gratitude to the faculty, students, and organizers for making the program a success. The program ended with the rendition of the National Anthem.

Through this initiative, students were encouraged to reflect on their responsibility towards nature and wildlife conservation. The event successfully created awareness about the interconnectedness of life on Earth, inspiring students to take proactive steps in protecting the environment.

International Women's Day

International Women's Day was celebrated at BSS B Ed Training College on Friday, March 7th, 2025. The event, a collaborative effort between the IQAC and the Women Cell & Commerce Option of the college, commenced with a welcome address from Dr. K. S. Balambika, the Principal of BSS B.Ed Training College. Dr. Balambika's address likely set a positive and celebratory tone for the day, highlighting the importance of recognizing and honoring women's achievements. The program's smooth flow was ensured by the anchor, Haritha N, Vice Chairperson & an executive member of the Women's cell, who skillfully guided the proceedings. The chief guest for the occasion was Dr. Priyadarshini, a Senior Gynaecologist from Thangam Hospital, Palakkad, a respected medical professional in the region. Dr. Priyadarshini inaugurated the celebration and delivered an insightful inaugural address, likely sharing her experiences and perspectives on women's roles and contributions in society, particularly in the field of healthcare.

A significant highlight of the eve't was Dr. Priyadarshini's highly engaging and informative session, where she shared valuable knowledge and perspectives on women's health. Given her profession, this session likely covered important health issues relevant to women, promoting awareness and well-being among the attendees. The celebration concluded with a vote of thanks from Ardra Haridas, the Chairperson & an executive member of Women's cell, expressing gratitude to all contributors, including the organizers, speakers, and participants, for making the event a grand success. The program culminated in the recitation of the National Anthem, fostering a sense of unity and national pride among those present. Dr. Priyadarshini's presence and impactful session on women's health underscored the importance of this day, inspiring the students and participants to value and prioritize women's well-being and empowerment. Through this event, BSS B Ed Training College demonstrated its commitment to promoting respect, equality, and empowerment for women, aligning with the core values of International Women's Day.

PI DAY AND HOLI

On March 14th, BSS B.Ed Training College in Alathur celebrated Pi Day and Holi with enthusiasm and joy in Wisdom Hall. This event was organized by the Commerce Option to honour both the significance of mathematics and the vibrant festival of colours. Pi Day highlights the importance of the mathematical constant π (pi) in various fields of study, fostering curiosity and appreciation for mathematics. Meanwhile, Holi, the festival of colours, symbolizes unity, joy, and the triumph of good over evil. The celebration aimed to blend the spirit of learning with cultural festivity, promoting knowledge, harmony, and togetherness among all participants.

The celebration began with a Rangoli competition featuring participants from various departments of B.S.S. B.Ed. Training College. Following the competition, the Pi Day celebration commenced with a warm welcome speech by Archana K, setting the tone for the event.

The official inauguration of the Pi Day function was then conducted by our esteemed Mathematics faculty member, Charles Sir. After the inauguration, Athulya J from the Mathematics option delivered an insightful speech on the significance of Pi Day. She highlighted the importance of the mathematical constant π (pi) in various fields of study and its role in shaping scientific advancements. Her speech deepened the audience's appreciation for mathematics and its real-world applications.

Subsequently, the Mathematics Department organized a series of engaging games as part of the Pi Day festivities, with enthusiastic participation from members of all departments, making the event both enjoyable and memorable. The celebration concluded with a heartfelt vote of thanks delivered by Aparna K, expressing gratitude to everyone who contributed to the success of the event.

International Happiness Day

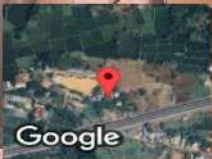

The BSS B.Ed. Training College, Alathur, celebrated International Happiness Day on 20 March, 2025 with great enthusiasm, embracing this year's theme, "Caring and Sharing." The theme emphasized that true happiness is cultivated through acts of kindness, fostering connections, and being part of something greater than oneself. The event was structured into two significant sessions: a formal morning session at the college and a meaningful afternoon visit to Deivadan centre at Vadakkancherry is a home for the helpless, homeless, the sick and suffering elderly women.

The morning session began with a warm and inspiring Welcome Speech delivered by Amrutha P, who set the tone for the day's celebrations.

The program was officially inaugurated by the Principal, K. S. Balambika Ma'am, in a unique and engaging manner. Each participant was provided with an eco-friendly pen and was instructed to share it with another person, symbolizing the essence of the theme. This simple yet profound activity demonstrated that sharing leads to happiness, fostering connections and spreading positivity.

Following the inauguration, Rasmi Ma'am, Assistant Professor in Commerce Education, introduced the Gratitude Challenge. She encouraged everyone to maintain a 30-day gratitude journal, where each day presented a unique challenge to complete. The purpose of this challenge was to instill mindfulness and appreciation in everyday life, helping individuals recognize and cherish the small blessings around them.

The morning session concluded with a heartfelt Vote of Thanks by Akhila B, who expressed gratitude to the principal, faculty members, and participants for making the event a meaningful experience. She emphasized that happiness grows when shared, making this event a true reflection of its theme.

The afternoon session took the spirit of happiness beyond the college campus, as students of BSS B.Ed. Training College, guided by Rasmi Ma'am, Jini ma'am and Salabha Ma'am, visited Deivadan Centre. The visit was a heart warming experience, filled with interactions that bridged the gap between generations. The students engaged in conversations with the elderly residents, listening to their stories and sharing moments of joy. This interaction not only brought smiles to the residents but also provided the students with valuable lessons on empathy, patience, and compassion.

To add to the festive atmosphere, the students and elderly residents performed dances and songs together, filling the home with laughter, music, and celebration. The joy on the faces of the elderly residents was a testament to the impact of the visit. It was a powerful reminder that happiness is not just about receiving but also about giving love, time, and companionship to those who need it most.

The celebration of International Happiness Day at BSS B.Ed. Training College was a truly enriching experience. The day's activities reinforced the message that happiness is best achieved through acts of care, generosity, and meaningful connections. The event left a lasting impact on all participants, reminding them that simple gestures of kindness can create profound waves of joy in the lives of others.

WORLD POETRY DAY

On World Poetry Day, B.S.S B.Ed Training College, Alathur, Palakkad, organized an engaging program to inspire students to read, write, and appreciate poetry. The event was conducted on March 21, 2023, with the aim of fostering creativity and literary expression among students.

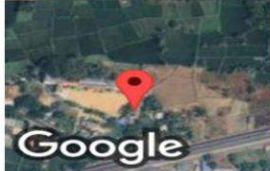

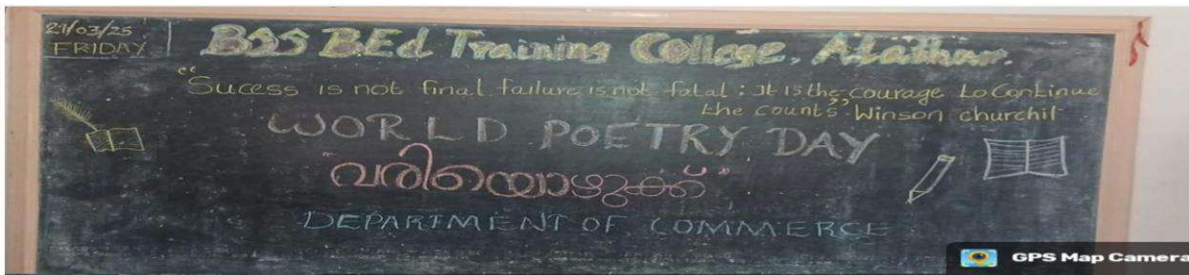

The program commenced at 9:30 AM in Wisdom Hall, the main auditorium of the college. The event opened with Guruvandanam, followed by the "Thought for the Day" session, setting a reflective and inspiring atmosphere.

The highlight of the event was "Variyozhukk", an interactive poetry-writing session. Themes were displayed on a screen, allowing students to select a topic of their choice. They then composed original poems in any language of their preference. This session encouraged self-expression and linguistic diversity, showcasing the rich poetic talent of the students.

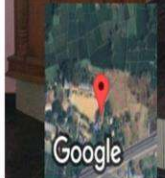

After the session, the poems were pasted on the Wisdom Hall wall under the title "Variyozhukk", creating a beautiful exhibit of creativity and thought-provoking reflections. This initiative transformed the hall into a literary space where students could read, appreciate, and connect through poetry.

Through open expression and creative engagement, World Poetry Day at B.S.S B.Ed Training College became a platform for artistic freedom and self-discovery. The event successfully nurtured a love for poetry, fostering a deeper connection between students and the art of words.

The celebration concluded with the National Anthem, marking the end of an inspiring and thought-provoking literary gathering.

WORLD WATER DAY

As part of our B.Ed. programme, we participated in a water day celebration programme conducted by the organisation Friends of Bharathapuzha, on world water day 22/03/2025. The event focused on the conservation of Bharathapuzha River, sustainable water management, and community participation in protecting water resources.

The programme commenced at 10:00 AM with an invocation, followed by a welcome speech. Ms. Priyanka G, IAS, inaugurated the event, highlighting the urgent need for water conservation and the importance of community-driven initiatives like Friends of Bharathapuzha. The keynote address was delivered by Dr. E. Sreedharan, the Mission Director, he is also known as "The Metro Man", he emphasized the role of responsible water usage, river conservation, and the significance of traditional water management practices.

The event was graced by eminent guests, including Mr. V.K. Sreekandan (MP), Mr. Rahul Mamkootathil (MLA), and Ms. Binumol K, who spoke about government policies, local initiatives, and the need for active public participation in water conservation efforts.

Then there was number of sessions by different eminent personalities like scientists, politician, social workers etc... Their sessions covered key topics such as:

- * The impact of pollution on Bharathapuzha and remedial measures.
- * Community-led water conservation projects.

The event concluded with a valedictory session, where the key insights from the discussions were summarized. A pledge was taken by attendees to actively contribute to water conservation.

The World Water Day 2025 celebration was a resounding success, inspiring students, educators, and community members to take collective action for the conservation of Bharathapuzha and other vital water resources.

EID - CELEBRATION

On March 25, 2025, B.S.S B. Ed Training College, Alathur celebrated Mylanchi Monchu, a vibrant and culturally significant event organized by the Department of Commerce. The program aimed to embrace tradition and heritage while fostering artistic expression among students.

The event commenced at Wisdom Hall with a graceful Guruvandanam, followed by the Thought for the Day, setting a reflective tone. The inauguration was conducted by Dr. K.S. Balambika, the esteemed Principal of the college, who emphasized the importance of cultural celebrations in education.

A special highlight of the event was a talk on Eid by Ajmal Sir(M.Ed trainee) and Shaima(physical science), who spoke about the festival's significance, traditions, and its message of unity and joy. Their words inspired students to appreciate the cultural diversity and spirit of togetherness that Eid represents.

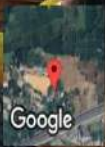

The Mehendi Program saw an enthusiastic participation where seniors and juniors beautifully adorned their hands with henna, symbolizing joy and festivity. Adding to the celebratory mood, an Oppana performance was conducted, showcasing the elegance and rhythm of traditional Mappila art, leaving the audience captivated.

The event concluded with a Vote of Thanks delivered by Aparna K, expressing gratitude to all contributors and attendees, followed by the National Anthem.

The Mylanchi Monchu celebration successfully provided a platform for students to appreciate tradition, express creativity, and strengthen communal bonds. It was an engaging and memorable event for all participants.
