FIELD VISIT

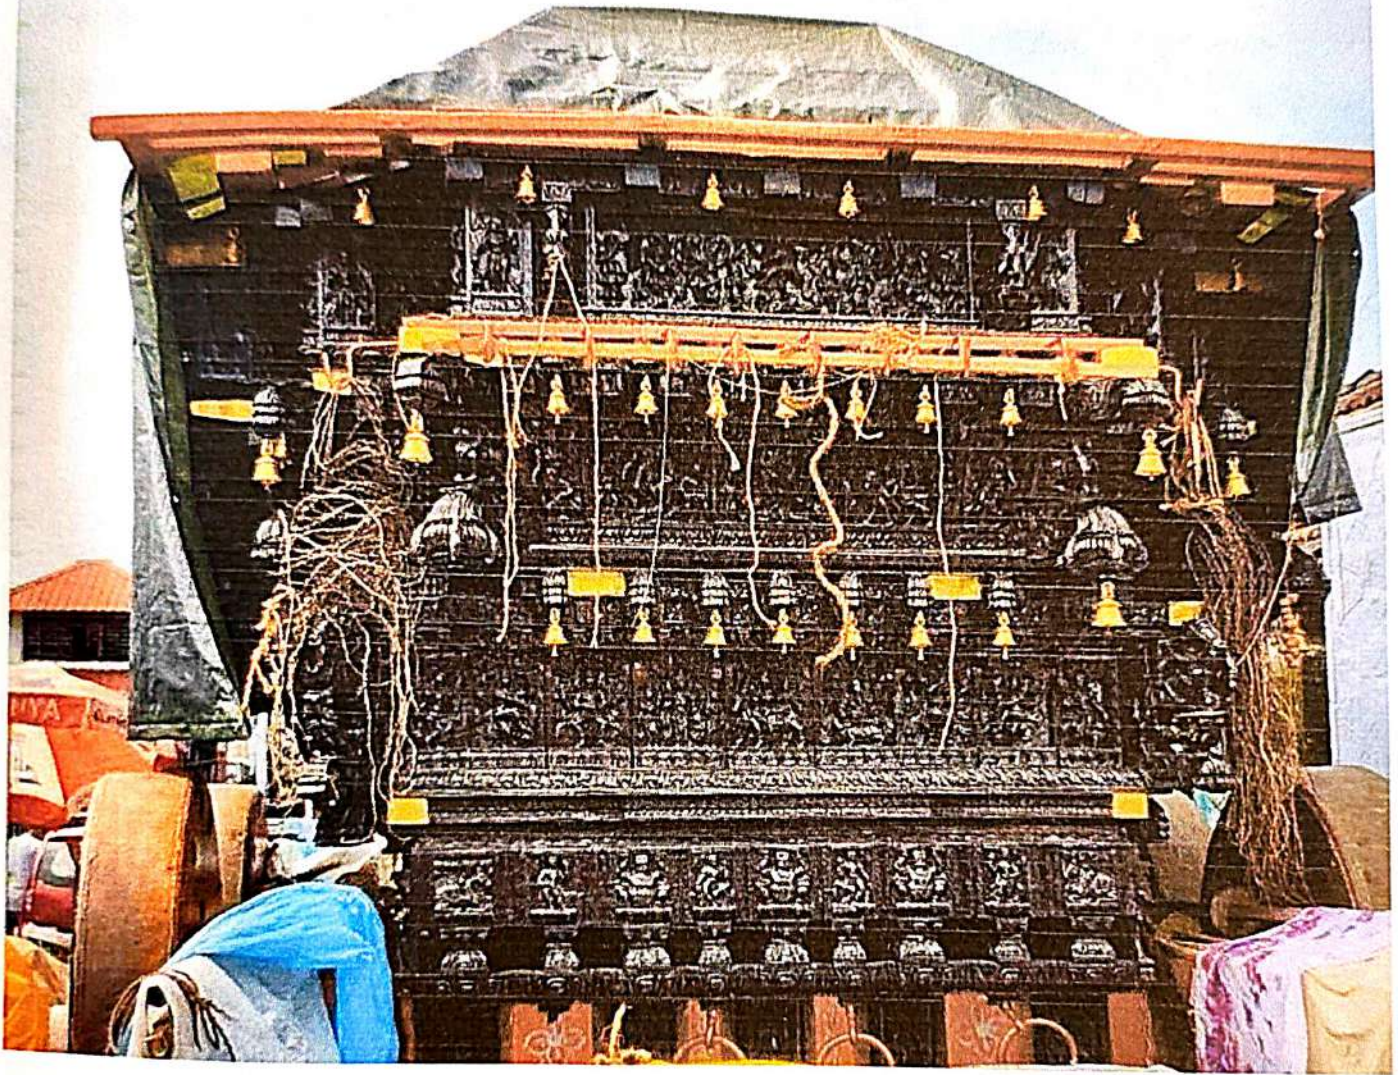

On 23rd of November 2023, the students of BSS B.Ed Training College Alathur along with the Principal and the teachers went on a field visit to the very renowned and a place with so much historical value, Kalpathi. Kalpathi is a residential area in Palakkad city, Kerala, India. It is famous for the Viswanatha Swamy Temple, which is located along the banks of the Kalpathy river, one of the tributaries of the Bharathapuzha. Kalpathy is also famous for its agraharam, or traditional village. It is the first heritage village in Kerala. The annual festival Kalpathy Ratholsavam is held here, with chariots as the main attraction. We left the campus by 10 in the morning, in the college bus, with the whole 53 students, Principal and the teachers. We reached the destination by around 10.35 AM. We entered the Kalpathy Heritage village with full excitement and enthusiasm. Students were explained about the historical background and the values of the place and about the famous festival that takes place there, that is Ratholsavam, by an expert. Students were allowed to explore the place and enjoy the aesthetic beauty of the place, individually. They were also allowed to shop from the shops that gave colour to the whole place. Then we were taken to the banks of Kalpathi river, one of the tributaries of Bharathapuzha. The principal and teachers surprised the students with a special surprise, that levelled up the mood of the students. At sharp 12.30 we left Kalpathy and reached the campus back at 1.15 PM.
